

Guidelines for Kwansei Gakuin University Graduate Program Admission through Partner University Nomination for 2022 -2021 Fall Application-

Kwansei Gakuin University (KGU) has an admission system which accepts excellent international students from our partner universities nomination. In this admission, KGU offers a scholarship covering the admission fee and the full amount of tuition for the standard length of the program (2 years for master's programs, 3 years for PhD programs) to a designated number of successful candidates. In addition, KGU will nominate the recipients of this scholarship to the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship which gives them a monthly allowance, etc. (As the nominees need to satisfy qualifications and conditions designated by MEXT, KGU cannot guarantee the acceptance of a MEXT Scholarship.)

For 2021 Fall Application, we will accept 3 candidates for 2022 Spring entry (SGU-MEXT Scholarship), and 2 candidates for 2022 Fall entry (MEXT Scholarship by University Recommendation). Please read the guidelines below carefully, and nominate excellent students who are interested in studying at KGU.

1. Types of Recommendation

KGU will accept two types of recommendations at the same time which are SGU MEXT Scholarship and MEXT Scholarship by University Recommendation. Please refer to the details below.

- *2 An online video interview may be held in order to verify the nominee's language skills or research fields.
- *3 Please refer to the guideline in Japanese for programs taught in Japanese.
- *4 The Graduate School of Policy Studies usually provides an "English Course" in which the language in all the classes and for all writing manuscripts is in English. However, unfortunately, the university is not accepting applications for this programme for the 2022-2023 academic year.
- *5 In regard to nomination of the MEXT Scholarship by University Recommendation, KGU places emphasis on selecting students from the priority area which is designated by MEXT.

The Graduate Course in UN and Foreign Affairs Studies

The Graduate Course in UN and Foreign Affairs Studies is a program of Multidisciplinary Studies for graduate students that aims to equip students with the practical knowledge and skills necessary to become future civil servants at international organizations. Classes are conducted entirely in English, and taught by professors with extensive expertise in foreign affairs and diplomacy. If you wish to take this course, please contact the Integrated Center for UN and Foreign Affairs Studies for more details in advance.

During their time in the course, students will gain valuable experience through internships at UN agencies, international NGOs, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and other governmental organizations. An internship in an international organization or other appropriate organization is mandatory for the completion of the Course. If a student enrolled in this program goes outside of Japan for the internship, the monthly allowance of the MEXT Scholarship will not be paid during the internship period. MEXT do not cover travel expenses (including flight tickets) for the internship.

(3) Tuition Reduction and Scholarships

Nominees who have been accepted to KGU's Graduate Program, and who are not selected as a recipient for the scholarships above (1) (2) are eligible for the following financial support;

◆Tuition Reduction

International students whose status of residence is “Student” are entitled to tuition reduction (the reduction was 30% in 2021; however, the reduction after 2022 is subject to change).

◆KGU International Student Scholarship

KGU also provides scholarships for international students who are in need of financial aid and maintain high academic standards. Details are as follows:

Tentative Selection Prior to Enrollment: 50% of the total amount of tuition

Selection after university entrance: 35% of the total amount of tuition

“Tentative Selection Prior to Enrollment” is a system for selecting students to receive conditional scholarship placements before entering KGU. Approximately 40% of students will receive a conditional offer for this scholarship based on their academic records, graduation thesis, and the results of their entrance examinations. The university targets candidates who are expected to conduct outstanding research after enrollment. Selected candidates will be notified before their enrollment into the program. However, it is necessary for students to meet all requirements such as status of residence, etc., in order to be officially selected to receive the scholarship.

Various scholarships from foundations/organizations are also available other than the scholarships mentioned above.

10. Admissions Procedures

Successful nominees should complete the following admissions procedures within the specified period. Payment information and details will be informed to the successful nominees.
